Local Intelligence.

Mr. King's Expedition.

It will be recollect that we alluded, a little while since, to the appointment, at the head of the survey of the fortieth parallel, of Mr. King, a descendant of one of Newport's most honored public men (Hon. Asaer Robbins) and a near relative of some still living among us. Of this expedition we are informed that it was authorized by the Thirty-ninth Congress at the suggestion of Prof. J. D. Whitney, the Superintendent of the California Geological Survey, and Mr. King, a graduate of Yale College, who made the discovery of some of the highest mountains in California, is the head of the party. Mr. King's zeal and perseverance are a pledge that the most gratifying results will be reached. To his efforts at Washington may be attributed the creation of this survey. Though quite a young man, he was so imbued with the necessity of a proper exploration of this section of our country that all with whom he conversed caught his spirit and gave the project that assistance which finally carried it through Congress. Mr. Stanton has given the enterprise all the encouragement in his power, and has ordered the necessary detail of cavalry to escort the party, which will number some sixteen gentlemen.

The section of country to be surveyed is that through which the Pacific Railroad will pass, and which is destined to become a thickly populated district, where cities and towns will flourish and all the arts of industry find abundant employment. This makes its importance apparent and shows the necessity of placing at the head of the expedition a man possessing the qualifications which are attributed to Mr. King.

SUNDAY CONCERTS.—The so-called "sacred concert" given at the Academy of Music on Sunday evening last, was, we are told, in point of numbers in attendance, a comparative failure. We confess that we do not regret such a result. We have a high opinion of the musical talent of Camilli Ursi and others connected with the company and wish them success in their profession, but when they come to take half time for their work, as in this case, we are glad to see that there is sufficient moral principle among us to rebuke the effort. The evening of the Christian Sabbath is not a proper time in this Christian Community for exhibitors of such a nature, and however lightly some may regard it, others will not forget that we are a Christian people pledged to the observance of the laws of God. It is to be hoped that a company of musicians, otherwise unexceptionable, will refrain from further work of this nature. It will be greatly to their credit and we doubt not, in the end, to their profit to pay a proper obedience to the claims of society and religion. In the case before us the objection is not to the character of the performance, but to the performance itself. The day has been set apart for other purposes and should be thus kept.

THE LADY-KEEPER'S HOUSE ON GOAT ISLAND.—We stated in the News, a couple of weeks since, that this house was to be demolished forthwith. It seems now, that though our sources of information were enough to have been reliable, this is not to be done, at least at present. The family occupying the house were notified to vacate by Saturday, the 13th, as the work of demolition was to be commenced the next Monday. The family did vacate, but the house was not torn down; indeed, so far from its being accomplished, a portion of the family of the keeper of the Goat Island Light moved in there yesterday, goods, chattels and all.

Our object is not to pass strictures on this somewhat extraordinary proceeding, but to explain the why and wheresofre of our error.

INDEPENDENT ORDER OF GOOD TEMPER.—Puraria Lodge No. 12, I. O. O. G. T. last evening elected the following officers for the ensuing quarter:

W. O. T., Rev. C. Bunting.
W. V. T., Mrs. M. T. G. Stacy.
S. Wm. L. Northrop.
F. S. Margaret Massawong.
T. Stephen A. Bres.
G. Wm. R. Pitman.
M. Benjamin B. Cornell.
L. G. Harriet N. G. Zeeus.
O. G. Daniel Wilber.

This Lodge, instituted last December, now numbers about one hundred members. Its meetings have hitherto been held in the hall of Atlantic Division No. 6, S. of T.; but last evening it was voted to lease the new and spacious hall in Goffe's building, corner of Thames Street and Long Wharf, which will be in readiness for them in a few weeks.

PATRIOT.—Rev. Dr. John A. Albro, of Cambridge, Mass., who died a few weeks since, was a native of Newport, having been born here in 1799. He studied law in Connecticut and commenced its practice at Mansfield at the age of twenty-one. After practising a few years, he became interested in religion and entered on a course of Theological study in 1821 at Andover, Mass. After short settlements over two parishes, he was settled as pastor of the Shepard Congregational Church at Cambridge where he prosecuted a successful and useful ministry of nearly thirty-two years until his death.

THE SEASON.—We understand that cottages are letting very rapidly for the coming season. Fifteen were taken within the last two weeks at the agency of Alfred Smith and the prospect is that all our summer houses will be occupied. Mr. Smith reports but about thirty are now engaged which is a smaller number than were on hand last year at this time. Several parties have reconsidered their determination and decided to locate at New York. We hear of one or two families now in Paris who have become disgusted with the "great exhibition" and are about to return.

ATTENTION, "OLD GUARD."—The annual meeting of the Old Guard will be held at the City Hall this evening, at 8 o'clock.

W. B. SWAN, Commanding, O. G.

MARINE INTELLIGENCE.—Advice from Port Lavaca, Texas to the 20th have been received. Schooner Julie A. Rider, Captain H. B. Rider, was in port loading cotton for New York, and nearly ready.

THE NEW ROAD.—Workmen have begun on the new road around Bateman's Point, and the enterprise will now be pushed rapidly forward to completion. It is intended that the drive shall be opened in time for the coming season, probably in July.

The Temperance controversy has brought out a book in New York which presents a somewhat unusual view of the liquor question. Rev. D. D. Thompson, the author, takes ground against total abstinence and endeavors to prove that as a rule of life it is unknown to the Bible and condemned by Christian ethics; and his argument is seconded by Rev. Howard Crosby. The argument is that moderate use of wine is not forbidden and the practice of total abstinence is wrong, while the immediate use is also. He says:

"The Master Builder, who came from heaven to reconstruct the electrical fabric of humanity, did not lay the cornerstone in substance; nor has he wrought the temple into any part of the structure. Executive His principles and plans as furnished by His precepts and example, and more fully developed by His apostolic writers in the New Testament, and we shall find that the Great Reformer has never interdicted an innocent gratification under the apprehension that it would run into a crime. On no spring of human enjoyment, either animal, intellectual or moral basis, He placed a seal. Out of Eden, where our first parents abode, and from which they were expelled, there is no tree of knowledge of good and evil, on which an interest is placed as the test of character."

Mr. Thompson also enters this judgment: "Every organization in the church of Christ which incites abstinence on its bar, whether as a preventive against vice or the whole circle of vices, raises the standard of rebellion against the Great Head of the Church."

We do not see the necessity for a publication of this kind. There is a sufficient number of people already thoroughly versed in the permissions of Scripture on the subject of drinking, who use their full liberty as if they were devoted disciples of the good Book. New York also has many divines more known than this author, who will probably make known their views upon the question and rescue religion from the reproach of the advocates of wine-blinding who are occasionally found in the sacred places.

FALL FIRE.—The News gives details of experiments with the new fire extinguisher, which were perfectly successful. In two instances piles of tar and resin barrels were saturated with kerosene and set on fire; and when the mass was in a flame, the fluid was thrown on it, extinguishing the fire in one minute, without nearly exhausting the contents. A building of rough boards, erected for the purpose, ten by twelve feet in area and fourteen feet high, was stoked with tar barrels, strewn with shavings and wet with kerosene. Doors and windows were open to give a free passage to the air and in a moment after the match was applied the whole building was on fire. Two streams were then directed upon the flames which were completely extinguished in two minutes, leaving the building a mass of charred wood.

THE INDIAN WAR.—Sr. Louis, Mo., April 29.—A dispatch from Omaha contains the report of the loss of the mail party between Fort Laramie and Reno. Gen. Angier is making preparations for the protection of the Union Pacific Railroad. Trains are now running regularly to the North Platte. Gen. Smith with the 4th infantry left Omaha yesterday for Fort Laramie.

Gen. Wessels at Fort Paul Kearney reports that the principal Cheyenne came to fort that on the 15th last, and gave satisfactory assurances of a peaceful disposition.

RECONSTRUCTION IN ARKANSAS.—

New York, April 29.—A Washington special says Gen. Ord, acting under instructions while in Washington, has detailed army officers to act in place of Arkansas State officers removed by him. This is more in accordance with the act of Congress than Gen. Sheridan's appointment of civilians to civil offices.

Rev. Dr. Anderson, Professor at the Newton Theological Seminary, also made an address upon the methods by which the greatest possible efficiency might be given to the ministry.

A list of officers for the ensuing year, comprising the former incumbents with two or three changes, was reported by the nominating committee, and the persons named were elected.

The proceedings of the meeting, together with the annual reports, were ordered to be printed under the direction of the Board of the Society.

Adjourned to meet in connection with the Convention in 1869.—Prov. Jour.

NEW MAPLE SUGAR, COCONUTS, RADISHES, LETTUCE, SPINACH, WILSON'S FRUIT BAZAAR.

One hundred rolls Straw Matting received this day at W. F. Lawton's BLUE STORE, in Providence 10 and 15 cents per yard.

The proprietor of the largest store in Rhode Island is not showing novelties in every department. In the Chamber Set Department he is showing the latest patterns. The staffed furniture and parlor set departments are special attractions. The carpet sales are a practical proof of what can be done by small profits. Crocker glass and wooden ware receive extraordinary patronage. Beds, bedsteads and bedding—the assortment is unequalled in the State. Late News

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 28, 1867.

The receipts from internal revenue sources to-day were $737,000.

The following notice was issued to-day:

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, April 27th.

In consequence of the increasing trouble wholly without financial benefit arising from notices which are constantly received at the department respecting the loss of coupon bonds which are payable to bearer, and of treasury notes issued and remaining in blank at the time of the loss, it becomes necessary to give this public notice: That the Government cannot protect, and will not endeavor to protect the owners of such bonds and notes against the consequences of their own fault and misfortune.

Hereafter, all bonds, notes and coupons payable to bearer, and treasury notes issued and remaining in blank will be paid to the party presenting them, in pursuance of the regulations of the Department. In the course of regular business, and no attention will be paid to events which may be filed for the purpose of preventing scam payment.

(Signed.) H. McCARTY,

THE MASSACHUSETTS LIQUOR COMPAGNIES.

WASHINGTON, April 29.—Chief Justice Chase to-day delivered an opinion in the Supreme Court in the case of Peasey against the Commonwealth of Massachusetts on a writ of error of the Supreme Court of that State.

The Court decided against all grounds of exception, and held more especially that the fact of Peasey having paid initial Revenue duty on liquor sold by him did not bring this case within the decision of the Court in that of Brown v. The State of Maryland for the reason that the latter was a question rising in foreign importa, as to which the power to levy taxes by the United States was exclusive, whereas Peasey's case, the tax being internal, applied to the subject of the jurisdiction of the United States with that of Massachusetts, concurrent.

Several other similar cases against the Commonwealth of Massachusetts were decided in the same way as the above.

THE COMING EUROPEAN CONFERENCE.—London, April 29.—The European Conference which is to meet in London next month to settle the dispute between France and Prussia in regard to Luxembourg, will be composed of representatives of Great Britain, France, Prussia, Austria, Russia, and the King of Holland, as Grand Duke of Luxembourg. It is understood that the following terms have been agreed upon as a basis for deliberation at the conference: First, Prussia is not to enlarge her present boundaries; Second, the fortifications of Luxembourg are to be dismantled; Third, The future political status of the Grand Duchy is to be ascertained and determined by the Conference; Fourth, The final decision of the Conference is to be guaranteed by all the governments participating therein.

LOXON, April 29, evening.—Five Tenants, 71; Illinois Central, 74; Erie Railay, 41; 1-4. Liverpool, 29, evening.—Activity in the cotton market was manifested to the close of the day, and the transactions were large. The following are the closing quotations: Middlebog Uplands, 12 1/2-14; middling Okesox, 12 1/2-14; 12 3/4-15; sales 20,000 bales.
